RUBY PORT

CASK FINISH

The new Arehucas Single Cask Ruby Finish 2006 has been aged for 17 years in the cellars of our century-old distillery and subsequently finished for 20 months in Ruby casks, imparting a unique aromatic depth, with fruity nuances characteristic of Port wine and resulting in a spirit of unprecedented richness and complexity.

This exclusive rum stands out for its aroma of oak and caramel, which evolves into notes of currants, vanilla, and ripe fruit when allowed to breathe. On the palate, smoky, woody, and coffee notes can be appreciated, completing a deep and well-balanced aromatic profile.

All bottles in this Limited Edition are numbered and hand-bottled in our distillery. To preserve its aromatic strength, it has not undergone any type of filtration and has been bottled at 45°, thus enhancing an unforgettable tasting experience.
